

Managing the Classroom, Understanding the Student

SCHEDULE OF WORKSHOPS:

DATE	TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
August 24	9 - 11 PM	The First Day	Rabbi Shmuel Krischer Rabbi Shmuel Krischer is an experienced educator and teaching mentor. Having taught in the classroom for a decade and mentored children for 13 years, he has developed teaching methodology that improves student-teacher relationships and helps tremendously with classroom management. Rabbi Krischer has been training and mentoring new teachers for years, sharing with them his practical advice and unique perspective on cultivating the proper classroom atmosphere.
August 27	9 - 11 PM	Reward System	Rabbi Shalom Zelmanowitz Rabbi Shalom Zelmanowitz is a dedicated and innovative educator. His extensive background includes over a decade of teaching and six years as a principal. Rabbi Zelmanowitz is passionate about forging relationships with students and using positive reinforcement.
August 30	8:30 - 10:30 PM	Disciplinary System	Rabbi Yitzchok Lieberman Rabbi Yitzchok Lieberman is a skilled educator with over 16 years of experience. He has served as principal for over 12 years, and had 5 years prior experience as a teacher. In 2007, he earned a Masters in Education from Felician University. He has attended numerous professional development workshops and has absorbed a wide range of diverse ideas and methods in the field of education. Rabbi Lieberman's unique, compassionate approach to instruction and classroom management has been cultivated over years of listening, observing, and implementing these methods in actual classrooms.
September 2	9 - 11 PM	Common Classroom Scenarios	Rabbi Shaya Krasnow Rabbi Shaya Krasnow is a seasoned and passionate educator with ten years of teaching experience and three years as a principal. His positive approach to education and simple but powerful techniques have defined his career. Rabbi Krasnow has helped teachers vastly improve the decorum and structure in their classrooms through training and mentoring. His understanding of the students and what makes them tick has contributed greatly to his success.
September 6	9 - 11 PM	Supporting the Challenged Student	Rabbi Yossie Margolis Rabbi Yossie Margolis is a caring behavioral therapist and teacher with many years of experience in mainstream and special education. He combines understanding and patience with expertise and innovation to support struggling students with academic and social challenges. With teacher certification in special education from the states of NY and NJ, as well as Board Certification in Applied Behavior Analysis (BCBA), Rabbi Margolis brings professionalism and experience into his work.
September 13	8:30 - 10:30 PM	A Teacher's Responsibilities	Rabbi Chesky Mayer Rabbi Chesky Mayer is an assistant principal and educator with 17 years of experience in classroom education and educational supervision. He holds a Masters in Educational Leadership from Bellevue University. Rabbi Mayer has asserted his central role in the field of education and teacher mentoring. His long and diverse experience on the ground, along with his warm and compassionate personality, helps him connect with students and teachers alike. He brings a unique perspective to teaching methodology that he has cultivated during his years in the field of education.

Presented by

Educational Services

800-742-1803 info@achievementses.com AchievementsES.com

Live ZOOM hookup also available
Location: 6531 U.S. 9 North • Howell, NJ 07731

WINGS