

1. Circle the choice that has the same meaning as the following sentence from the lesson:
Looking at it from the viewpoint of today's fast-paced world, it certainly sounds cumbersome.
 - A. From the perspective of today's technologically advanced world, it sounds very up-to-date.
 - B. Compared to the way things were, this sounds like it weighs a lot and is hard to carry.
 - C. From the perspective of today's high-speed world, it sounds very inconvenient.
 - D. Compared to the way things were, this sounds like it was a very grave mistake.

2. Circle the vocabulary word that best fits the sentence.
There was a specific (sequence, decipher) to the paperwork, and it would not be accepted in any other order.

3. Mark each statement as F (fact) or O (opinion).
 - Learning Morse code is a waste of time if you are literate in English.
 - Morse code uses dots and dashes to communicate.
 - Morse code is useless today, as there are more efficient means of communication.
 - Morse code was invented to be used in telegraphs.

4. Place a check mark next to each statement that correctly describes Morse code.
 - Morse code was invented by Samuel Morse.
 - The invention of Morse code slowed mail delivery significantly.
 - The original Morse code was used for the English language.
 - The International Morse Code uses dots and dashes.
 - Initially, only the army knew how to interpret Morse code.
 - Even without the use of telegraph machines, Morse code is a successful means of communication.