

Practice 3.11

Rewrite the following paragraph using first person point of view.¹

Sarah was terribly out of breath. She was trying hard to keep up with her friends on their hike through the nature preserve, but they were far ahead, almost out of sight between the trees.

I was terribly out of breath. I was trying hard to keep up with my friends on our hike through the nature preserve, but they were far ahead, almost out of sight between the trees.

Rewrite the following paragraph using limited third person point of view.² Be careful to change any observations or feelings that do not come from the main character.

Yitzchok, Avi, and Shaya wandered the aisles of Walmart, grabbing camping supplies off the shelves and dropping them into the cart. Yitzchok was wondering if Avi really needed three cans of sunblock, and Shaya wanted to just finish up and pay.

Yitzchok, Avi, and Shaya wandered the aisles of Walmart, grabbing camping supplies off the shelves and dropping them into the cart. Yitzchok was wondering if Avi really needed three cans of sunblock, and Shaya looked like he just wanted to finish up and pay.