A New Health Leader Continued

But ^{👨⚕️}doctors are not the only ones who help. There are also [👥]people who make rules. These rules tell ^{👨⚕️}doctors what to do. They tell ^{👨⚕️}doctors how to keep [👥]people [🏥]healthy.

^{👨⚕️}Doctors do not always agree with ^{🏛️}rule makers. At times, they have different ideas.

Robert Kennedy is a rule maker. His job is to make rules that keep [👥]people [🏥]healthy. He made some changes to the old rules.

A picture of Robert F. Kennedy Junior.

Kennedy wants ^{👨⚕️}doctors to give less shots to kids. Many ^{👨⚕️}doctors do not agree. They think shots keep kids from getting sick.

^{🏛️}Rule makers in ^{🏛️}Washington were upset at Kennedy. They told him to come and speak to them. They asked him about his ideas. Some of them argued with Kennedy. They did not agree with his changes.

Some [👥]people agree with Kennedy, and some [👥]people do not. The talks about kids and shots are still going on.

Festival of Redheads

There was a big party this month.

There was lots of food at the party.

They had music.

The party was for people with red hair.

There are not many people with red hair.

Every year, many people come to this red hair party.

They even come from far places.

At the party, people smile for a picture with their red hair.

The party started more than ten years ago.

There was a man called Bart who liked to paint.

He wanted to paint people with red hair.

He looked for people with red hair.

A lot of people with red hair came to Bart.

Bart took a picture of everyone.

They all liked it a lot.

Now, the party happens every year.
